

Shirley McKie: The Whole Truth

BBC TV Scotland - Wednesday 8 March 2006
( <http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/scotland/default.stm> )

Internet link will follow.

evening	BBC One Scotland	morning afternoon
18:00	BBC News  National and international news from the BBC, followed by Weather. [S]
18:30	Reporting Scotland  The latest news and weather from BBC News Scotland. [S]
19:00	Shirley McKie: The Whole Truth  It started nine years ago with a murder in Kilmarnock and has led to an international controversy on fingerprinting and calls for Government resignations. Shirley McKie was paid £750,000 by the Scottish Executive after her fingerprint was wrongly identified in the house of a murder victim. Frontline Scotland's Shelley Jofre first revealed the problems with the fingerprint identifications over five years ago. Now she reveals how this story has developed into a major scandal. [S]	