

New CD single download 'I am Shirley McKie'

Michael Marra the Scottish singer/songwriter has just issued a single called 'I am Shirley McKie'. Following its first play on Radio Scotland on Saturday it is now available as an internet download.

Copies are available at:

https://www.groupsites.co.uk/client/marra_me_uk/music_store/index.php?cat_id=6

Further information at:

<http://www.marra.me.uk/>

and

<http://www.footstompin.com/forum?threadid=53879>

I Am Shirley McKie -

Michael Marra

I am Shirley McKie
She is me and I am she
You are too, Shirley is you
We are she because Shirley is we

Don't call this the home of the brave
Don't call this the home of the free
Don't call it the home of the handsome
Or any noble name that might come back to haunt you

We lecture children if they're telling lies
They will not prosper and they will not thrive
That's the message we teach our youth
It will not work if you don't tell the truth
And even the First Minister must sometimes stand naked

I am Shirley McKie
She is me and I am she
You are too, Shirley is you
We are she because Shirley is we

If we let her down imagine the view
If we do nothing like we usually do
Watching Justice's blindfold slip
To form a gag around her lips

I am Shirley McKie
She is me and I am she
You are too, Shirley is you
We are she because Shirley is we

Copyright 2006 Michael Marra