

ROBBIE'S STORY

'For evil to prevail it is sufficient only that good men/women do nothing'

Over the past years we have heard from many people across the world who have suffered injustice of one kind or another. Without exception in the midst of their pain and uncertainty they have offered Shirley support and good wishes for the future.

We have been deeply moved by many of these stories and by way of acknowledging them we provide the following link to 'Robbie's Story' a story of injustice that is scarcely believable and shows the evil that can be perpetuated in the name of our justice system.
